

My Dear Cicero,

The Republic is in grave danger yet again.

The time for debate has passed.

Valiant as you tried, it fell on deaf ears.

They have crossed the Rubicon.

Do not let it fall on blind eyes.

There is no middle ground, in these parts unknown.

We HAVE reached a fork in the road.

Republic, of the people.

Or domination, by the few.

My dear Cicero, do not let it fall.

My dear Cicero, we need you yet.

My dear Cicero, you must stand brave against tyranny.

My dear Cicero, you CANNOT fail.

You must impeach.

Every day delayed is more power STOLEN by the Executive.

More power in the hands of the elites.

You KNOW how this ends once SCOTUS rules on it.

They are already paid for.

You KNOW how this ends once the FBI and DOJ are lapdogs.

You KNOW how this ends when the USD is controlled by those who abuse power they gain.

You KNOW how this ends.

We all see this is a coup. The Republic must not fail, no matter the cost you must pay.

I write this through tears.

I was a dependent of a military father.

I grew up overseas, dreaming about how great America must actually be.

I joined the military at 18 and served 12 years, so proud to be an American.

So proud to honor my country.

I am no longer proud.

I cry with shame.

Shame that my children will live poorer than me.

Shame that my country has forgotten what made us great.

Shame that my country is no longer my country, but is owned by those that hoard and bloat and fester.

My Dear Cicero, it is time for drastic actions. Save the Republic!

Before you are unable to.

Articles of Impeachment Against Donald J. Trump

Article I: Abuse of Power

Donald J. Trump, in his capacity as President, has abused his influence and authority by issuing unconstitutional executive orders that exceeded the lawful limits of presidential power. Specifically:

1. Issuing executive orders that violate constitutional principles, including attempts to override congressional authority and judicial rulings.
2. Using executive power to benefit personal and political allies while undermining democratic institutions.
3. Circumventing established laws and procedures to unilaterally implement policies without congressional approval and despite judiciary challenges.

These actions constitute an abuse of executive authority, warranting legal accountability and disqualification from holding future federal office.

Article II: Obstruction of Congress

Donald J. Trump has obstructed the lawful functions of Congress by attempting to usurp the legislative branch's control over government funding, thereby violating the constitutional separation of powers. Specifically:

1. Redirecting congressionally appropriated funds without legislative approval.
2. Issuing directives to executive agencies to bypass congressional budgetary decisions and implement unauthorized financial allocations.
3. Engaging in efforts to undermine congressional oversight by refusing to disclose financial transactions and administrative actions related to government expenditures.

This obstruction has hindered the ability of Congress to fulfill its constitutional role in government finance, justifying legal accountability and disqualification from holding future federal office.

Article III: Illegal Bribery and Corruption

Donald J. Trump has engaged in illegal bribery and corruption by accepting financial contributions from billionaire elites in exchange for political favors and appointments. Specifically:

1. Accepting campaign contributions from corporate and foreign donors in return for granting political appointments and policy influence.
2. Promoting and benefiting from the Trump MEME cryptocurrency, which has been used as a vehicle for illegal bribes by domestic and foreign elites.
3. Using political office and campaign fundraising mechanisms to facilitate illicit financial transactions and enrich personal and allied business interests.

By his conduct, Donald J. Trump has engaged in corrupt practices that compromise the integrity of the U.S. government, justifying legal accountability and disqualification from holding future federal office.

Conclusion

In all of this, Donald J. Trump has acted in a manner grossly incompatible with the rule of law and constitutional governance. His continued influence in public office poses a threat to democratic institutions and national security. Accordingly, the House of Representatives, in the name of the people of the United States, does hereby impeach Donald J. Trump and submit these Articles of Impeachment for trial in the United States Senate.

Sign this fucking document and save your country.
The American People will forgive you, as we rebuild, together.
